

Jodo DRC Chair Report April 29th, 2019.

At the Jodo Bu AGM last summer no questions were raised concerning the direction and activities of the Jodo Bu.

Due to a personal injury I was unable to accompany the Jodo Team for the last EJC and am unable to comment on their progress at that event.

I sent out an email last autumn to all Dojo practicing Jodo asking for feedback on any points of concern or on matters which the Membership or DRC's felt needed raising regarding the direction of the Jodo Bu.

As the response was absolutely zero, I concluded that Stojanka and her excellent team had everything in hand to the complete satisfaction of the Membership.

As far as the Jodo Bu is concerned I have taken a very low-key approach to the post, I have though been active in supporting the Jodo Bucho and Jodo Bu members at NC level.

To my knowledge there have been no areas of conflict raised by Jodo Bu members and I must express my happiness and deep gratitude that over the last two years all Jodo events in which I have participated have been held in a cheerful, friendly and co-operative spirit.

For my successor
