BBR

Critical security requirements:

Please confirm that:

You use Multi Factor Authentication (MFA) for all users' access to web based email: Yes

Additional guidance:

MFA uses a second piece of information to authenticate access, so more than just a password. Passwords alone no longer provide enough security, especially for services accessible from the Internet (e.g., Microsoft 365, Google Workspace, etc).

Additional recommended security standards:

You have a process in place to regularly send simulated phishing email tests to all users, and you enforce additional anti-phishing training for those who fail: No

You regularly scan services exposed to the Internet for vulnerabilities: No

You use the following to prevent or detect malicious activity on your network:

EPP (Endpoint Protection Platform): No

EDR (Endpoint Detection and Response): No

- MDR (Managed Detection and Response): No
- You use the Microsoft 365 Defender add-on or an equivalent cybersecurity product with advanced threat hunting to protect against phishing and business email compromise: No
- You whitelist acceptable IP addresses from which legitimate connections to your exposed services are allowed, and you block all other IP addresses from accessing your exposed services (E.g. email system, remote access such as VPN, etc): No
- You opt in to receiving important risk management communications directly from Beazley's BBR Services team (please note: the BBR Services team will not send marketing communications): Yes

Previous Claims

Please confirm that:

The insured has not sustained any losses or has not been subject to any claims in the past 5 years which would be covered under the proposed insurance. Yes

There are no acts, errors, omissions, circumstances, facts, situations, events, incidents and/or transactions which the insured is aware of or ought reasonably to have been aware of, that may give rise to a claim or loss under the proposed insurance.

Declaration

All the statements in this Statement of Facts together with any oral or written statements provided to us are true, complete and not misleading. This statement does not obligate you or us to bind the insurance. You agree that you will inform us of any material changes to the information supplied on this statement of facts prior to the bind date of this insurance and between the bind date and the inception date of the insurance and we may withdraw or modify any terms accordingly. We will not provide any indemnity in respect of liability from such material change unless we agree in writing to accept the altered risk. Yes

In accordance with the Insurance Act 2015, I have made a fair presentation of the risk. If you are unsure of your duty of fair presentation, please ask your broker for further information.

Your personal information notice

Who we are

We are the insurers identified in the contract of insurance and/or in the certificate of insurance.

The basics

We collect and use relevant information about you to provide you with your insurance cover or the insurance cover that benefits you and to meet our legal obligations.

This information includes details such as your name, address and contact details and any other information that we collect about you in connection with the insurance cover from which you benefit. This information may include more sensitive details such as information about your health and any criminal convictions you may have.

In certain circumstances, we may need your consent to process certain categories of information about you (including sensitive details such as information about your health and any criminal convictions you may have). Where we need your consent, we will ask you for it separately. You do not have to give your consent and you may withdraw your consent at any time. However, if you do not give your consent, or you withdraw your consent, this may affect our ability to provide the insurance cover from which you benefit and may prevent us from providing cover for you or handling your claims.

The way insurance works means that your information may be shared with, and used by, a number of third parties in the insurance sector for example, insurers, agents or brokers, reinsurers, loss adjusters, sub-contractors, regulators, law enforcement agencies, fraud and crime prevention and detection agencies and compulsory insurance databases. We will only disclose your personal information in connection with the insurance cover that we provide and to the extent required or permitted by law.

Other people's details you provide to us

Where you provide us or your agent or broker with details about other people, you must provide this notice to them.

Want more details?

For more information about how we use your personal information please see our full privacy notice(s), which is/are available online on our website(s) or in other formats on request.

Contacting us and your rights

You have rights in relation to the information we hold about you, including the right to access your information. If you wish to exercise your rights, discuss how we use your information or request a copy of our full privacy notice(s), please contact us on DPO@beazley.com or the agent or broker that arranged this insurance.
